CARDIOGUIDE™ HF APP

RESEARCH CONSENT

By clicking "Accept", I explicitly consent for Abbott to de-identify, pseudonymize, aggregate, and/or anonymize my personal data for the following purposes: to (a) conduct research for the purposes described in the +Research section of this Privacy Notice; (b) improve and develop Abbott's cardiac health products and services; and (c) generate aggregate statistical analysis and reports. This consent is entirely voluntary and separate from any consent required for the provision of the Services. You are not required to provide consent to research in order to use the App or receive the Services.

This consent is voluntary and you may withdraw this consent at any time by contacting privacy@abbott.com.
